Section 6. The Grand Board shall have the power to establish such procedures or regulations as are necessary for the successful conduct of Fraternity affairs, but not in conflict with the Constitution, Statutes or Ritual.

Section 7. The Grand Board shall have the power, by an eight-tenth affirmative vote, to remove any national, Province, chapter or alumni association officer for - [i] malfeasance in office, [ii] neglect of duty, or [iii] other offenses against the laws, dignity or interest of Kappa Alpha Psi.

Section 8. The Grand Board shall have the power to suspend or revoke the charter of any chapter or alumni association.

Section 9. The Grand Board shall have the power to suspend or expel any member of the Fraternity in accord with the Statutes.

Section 10. All chapters, alumni associations or members are subject to disciplinary action and shall have such rights and privileges as prescribed by the Constitution, Statutes, Pronouncement on Hazing, and rules and regulations promulgated thereto.

Section 11. The Grand Board shall have the responsibility and authority to outline, program, and make plans and arrangements for all sessions of a Grand Chapter meeting. However, it may delegate certain responsibilities and authorities, provided it shall not delegate complete and direct charge of planning and conducting business aspects of the program and the coordination of these aspects with all other activity.

Section 12. The Grand Board shall have the power to enter contractual relationships and to represent the Fraternity in such legal matters as arise.

(TOP) ARTICLE VI. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. There shall be an Executive Committee of the Grand Board [hereinafter also referred to as Executive Committee]. It shall consist of - [i] the Grand Polemarch, who shall be the chairman, [ii] the Senior Grand Vice Polemarch, [iii] the Junior Grand Vice Polemarch, and [iv] the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall give active and continuous supervision to the International Headquarters and administer the field operations of the Fraternity during intervals between meetings of the Grand Board. It shall be accountable to the Grand Board.

Section 3. The Executive Committee shall set forth such written procedures and controls as are necessary to efficient directions and coordination of operations. It shall delineate the duties of the several functionaries and organizational divisions under its supervision, and maintain such line and staff relationships as shall facilitate the programs and purposes of Kappa Alpha Psi.

Section 4. The Executive Committee shall meet with such regularity and at such intervals as determined by Statute.

Section 5. The Executive Committee shall employ International Headquarters staff for such positions authorized by the members of the Grand Chapter or the Grand Board, in accordance with such conditions as shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

Section 6. The Executive Committee shall prepare the annual operating budget for consideration by the Grand Board.

Section 7. The Executive Committee shall fix the bond of - [i] the Executive Director, [ii] the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer, and [iii] such other persons who are empowered to handle the funds of Kappa Alpha Psi.

Section 8. The Executive Committee shall receive and investigate petitions for the chartering of chapters and for the initiation of persons by alumni chapters. It shall submit its findings and recommendations to the Grand Board for final action in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 9. The Executive Committee shall design or supervise the designing, manufacturing and distribution of Fraternity insignia, subject to contractual agreements previously entered into by the Grand Board.

Section 10. The Executive Committee shall supervise the installation of uniform bookkeeping and fiscal reporting systems by all undergraduate chapters, and the uniform recording of minutes, historical data and pre-designated statistics by chapters and Provinces.

(TOP) ARTICLE VII. PROVINCES

Section 1. The chapters and alumni associations of the Fraternity shall be grouped geographically into areas to be known as Provinces with such boundaries as the members of the Grand Chapter shall fix by the Statutes.

Section 2. The designation of the various Provinces of this Fraternity shall be according to geographical location as follows

- The Eastern Province of Kappa Alpha Psi
- The Southern Province of Kappa Alpha Psi
- The Northern Province of Kappa Alpha Psi
- The Western Province of Kappa Alpha Psi

Section 3. The Grand Board shall designate the Province to which a new chapter or alumni association shall belong.

Section 4. Each Province shall have one meeting each calendar year called a Council. The purposes of each Council shall be to - [i] provide inspirational social contact and renewal for the brothers assembled, [ii] foster activities, and [iii] provide a means whereby through resolutions, recommendations and petitions, large clusters of chapters and alumni associations can advise the Grand Board and the Grand Chapter on all policy and procedural matters of interest to them.

Section 5. All Provinces shall have the authority to fix the fees and assessments of its members. Such fees shall be subject to the Statutes governing the payment of fees and assessments to the Province and the Grand Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi.

Section 6. Each chapter within a Province and in good financial status with that Province and the Grand Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates or three alternate delegates at any Council. Each alumni association within a Province and in good financial status with that Province and the Grand Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi shall be entitled to representation by one delegate.

Section 7. Each chapter and alumni association described in Section 6 shall have the right to representation by proxy, provided no member shall vote the proxy of more than one chapter or alumni association.

Section 8. The elective officers of each Province shall be - [i] the Senior Province Vice Polemarch, [ii] the Junior Province Vice Polemarch, [iii] the Province Keeper of Records, [iv] the Province Keeper of Exchequer, [v] the Province Historian, [vi] the Province Strategus, [vii] the Province Lieutenant Strategus, [viii] Province Board of Directors, and [ix] such other officers as may be deemed necessary, all of whom, with the exception of the members of the Province Board of Directors elected from the floor at a Council shall be elected for a period of one year. Two of the members of the Province Board of Directors elected from the floor at a Council shall be limited to a one-year term. Additional elected Province Board members shall be limited to a three year term. All duly elected officers shall be inducted into office during the Council.

Section 9. Members of undergraduate chapters shall fill the elective offices of Junior Province Vice Polemarch, Province Strategus, and Province Lieutenant Strategus. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to imply that members of undergraduate chapters may not hold other offices within a Province.

Section 10. The Province Board of Directors shall consist of at least seven members, as follows - [i] the Province Polemarch, who shall be chairman, [ii] the Senior Province Vice Polemarch, [iii] the Junior Province Vice Polemarch, [iv] the Province Keeper of Records; [v] the Province Keeper of Exchequer; and [vi] at least two other members elected from the floor of the Council, at least one of whom shall be a member of an undergraduate chapter. If the offices of Province Keeper of Records and Province Keeper of Exchequer are combined, three members of the Province Board of Directors shall be elected from the floor of the Council.

Section 11. Election to a Province Office shall be by majority affirmative ballot of the authorized representatives present and voting.

Section 12. The duties of the officers of each Province shall be such as appertain to their respective offices.

(TOP) ARTICLE VIII. COUNCIL OF PROVINCE POLEMARCHS

Section 1. There shall be a Council of Province Polemarchs of the Fraternity, composed of the several Province Polemarchs and the Senior Grand Vice Polemarch, who shall be its chairman. The chairman shall have primary responsibility for programming, coordinating, and conducting the meetings of the Council of Province Polemarchs, subject to the approval of the Grand Polemarch.

Section 2. The Council of Province Polemarchs shall elect its secretary.

Section 3. The Council of Province Polemarchs shall meet annually for at least a full day session. The Grand Polemarch shall determine the dates, places, duration, and frequency of such meetings within established budgetary limitations.

Section 4. The Council of Province Polemarchs shall not be a legislative body. However, it may recommend specific actions to the Executive Committee or the Grand Board. Its principal functions shall be to - [i] discuss techniques for supervising chapters and alumni associations, [ii] discuss programming and conducting Province meetings, [iii] discuss the uniform implementation of the Constitution, Statutes, Ritual, and Fraternity Regulations, and [iv] engage in other constructive group thinking on the future of Kappa Alpha Psi.

(TOP) ARTICLE IX. SENIOR PROVINCE VICE POLEMARCHS COUNCIL

Section 1. There shall be a Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council of the Fraternity, composed of the several Senior Province Vice Polemarchs from each Province and the Senior Grand Vice Polemarch, who shall serve as its chairman. The chairman shall be responsible for organizing the meetings of the Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council.

Section 2. The Vice Chairman, Secretary and Chaplain shall be elected by the Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council.

Section 3. The Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council shall meet annually for at least a full day session. The dates, places, duration and frequency of such meetings shall be determined by the Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council at the closing of the most recent Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council meeting, and organized by the Senior Grand Vice Polemarch.

Section 4. The Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council shall not be a legislative body. However, it may recommend specific actions to the Council of Province Polemarchs. Its principal function shall be to - [i] learn Fraternity operations, [ii] learn leadership techniques as they relate to the office of Senior Province Vice Polemarch, [iii] engage in a round table discussion on current Fraternity issues, and [iv] engage in constructive group thinking on the future of Kappa Alpha Psi from the perspective of a Senior Province Vice Polemarch.

Section 5. The funding of this meeting will be borne 50% by each respective Province and 50% by the Fraternity for each Senior Province Vice Polemarch. [Article adopted at 74th Grand Chapter meeting]

(TOP) ARTICLE X. PAST GRAND POLEMARCHS COUNCIL

Section 1. There shall be a Past Grand Polemarchs Council composed of all living Past Grand Polemarchs.

Section 2. The Past Grand Polemarchs Council shall hold at least one meeting during each Grand Chapter meeting and at such other times as may be requested.

Section 3. The Past Grand Polemarchs Council shall - [i] advise the Fraternity and its officers on all matters of concern to it, and [ii] develop for consideration of the Grand Board, if desirable, position papers on the current policy directions of the Fraternity.

Section 4. The Past Grand Polemarchs Council shall elect from among its own members a chairman and secretary who shall serve at the pleasure of the Past Grand Polemarchs Council.

(TOP) ARTICLE XI. JUNIOR PROVINCE VICE POLEMARCHS COUNCIL

Section 1. There shall be a Junior Province Vice Polemarchs Council composed of the Junior Province Vice Polemarchs from each Province of the Fraternity, and the undergraduate members of the Grand Board. The Junior Grand Vice Polemarch shall serve as its chairman.

Section 2. The national C. Rodger Wilson Leadership Conference Committee and the Junior Grand Vice Polemarch shall be responsible for organizing meetings of this Council.

Section 3. The Junior Province Vice Polemarchs Council shall meet annually for at least a full day session.

Section 4. The Junior Province Vice Polemarchs Council shall not be a legislative body. However, it may recommend specific actions to the Executive Committee or the Grand Board. Its principal function shall be to - [i] learn Fraternity operations, [ii] learn leadership techniques as they relate to the office of Junior Province Vice Polemarch, and [iii] engage in a round table discussion on current Fraternity issues, especially those affecting undergraduates.

Section 5. The funding of this meeting will be borne 50% by each respective Province and 50% by the Fraternity for each Junior Province Vice Polemarch. The Fraternity will bear the entire cost of the undergraduate members of the Grand Board.

(TOP) ARTICLE XII. GRAND POLEMARCH

Section 1. The Grand Polemarch shall be the chief executive officer of the Fraternity. He shall preside at meetings of the Grand Chapter. He shall serve as chairman of the Grand Board and the Executive Committee, and as a member of the Elder W. Diggs Memorial Foundation Board of Directors. He shall call all regular and special sessions of the Grand Chapter after consultation with the Grand Board. He shall appoint such standing and special committees or commissions as are necessary unless otherwise provided by the Constitution or the Statutes. He shall sign all charters and documents executed on behalf of the Fraternity. He shall have the power to interpret and enforce the provisions of the Constitution, Statutes, Ritual and Fraternity Regulations, subject to review by the Grand Board and the members of the Grand Chapter. He shall have the authority to call special meetings of any chapter or alumni association and to require written reports from any national, chapter or alumni association officer on any matter he may deem proper.

Section 2. The Grand Polemarch shall have the power to remove any officer of any chapter or alumni association for failure to perform his duties, subject to approval of the Grand Board, provided - [i] a majority of the active or sustaining members in attendance at a regular meeting of such chapter or alumni association request such removal, and [ii] the request is previously reviewed and recommended by the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction.

Section 3. The Grand Polemarch may for reason of inefficiency, uncooperativeness or dereliction of duty remove any Province officer and appoint his successor to serve until the next Council.

Section 4. The Grand Polemarch shall confirm interpretations of the Constitution, Statutes and Fraternity Regulations in writing to the members or body concerned. The Executive Committee shall maintain a copy for permanent filing.

(TOP) ARTICLE XIII. SENIOR GRAND VICE POLEMARCH

Section 1. The Senior Grand Vice Polemarch shall perform some of the duties of the Grand Polemarch when the Grand Polemarch temporarily absents himself or is otherwise unable to serve. He shall engage in such other related duties as may be required of him.

Section 2. The Senior Grand Vice Polemarch shall be a member of and serve as chairman of the Council of Province Polemarchs, and the Senior Province Vice Polemarchs Council. [Amended by adoption of Article IX at the 74th Grand Chapter meeting]

(TOP) ARTICLE XIV. JUNIOR GRAND VICE POLEMARCH

Section 1. The Junior Grand Vice Polemarch shall be a member of an undergraduate chapter. He may perform some of the duties of the Grand Polemarch when both the Grand Polemarch and the Senior Grand Vice Polemarch temporarily absent themselves from meetings of the Grand Chapter or the Grand Board, or when they are otherwise unable to serve.

Section 2. The Junior Grand Vice Polemarch may serve as an administrative assistant to the Grand Polemarch promoting within undergraduate chapters - [i] esprit de corps, [ii] scholarship, [iii] good morals, [iv] discipline, [v] cooperation with college objectives, [vi] participation at the Grand Chapter meetings and Councils, and [vii] adherence to the Constitution, Statutes and Ritual. He shall perform such other related duties as the Grand Polemarch may require.

(TOP) ARTICLE XV. GRAND KEEPER OF RECORDS AND EXCHEQUER

Section 1. The Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall supervise the maintenance of fiscal and corporate records of the Fraternity. He shall supervise only, the recording of Grand Chapter minutes and the permanent maintenance of such minutes and other Fraternity records in the International Headquarters office. He shall serve as the comptroller of Fraternity funds. He shall sign and issue warrants for payments from such funds upon order of the members of the Grand Chapter or the Grand Board, when countersigned in accordance with the Statutes. He shall sign all charters.

Section 2. The Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall maintain such books and make such reports required by The Statutes of Kappa Alpha Psi. Any member in good standing with the Fraternity may inspect the books of the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer.

Section 3. The Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall be bonded in an amount fixed and conditioned by the Executive Committee, and executed by the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer and a surety company approved by the Executive Committee.

(TOP) ARTICLE XVI. GRAND HISTORIAN

Section 1. The Grand Historian shall collect and compile historical and biographical materials annually for the use of the Fraternity and shall direct its publication in the manner prescribed in the Statutes.

Section 2. The Grand Historian shall be a member of the Publicity and Publications Commission. Section 1. The Grand Strategus shall be a member of an undergraduate chapter. He shall - [i] have charge of the approaches to a Grand Chapter meeting; [ii] preserve order and decorum; and [iii] see that only qualified members of the Fraternity shall enter a Grand Chapter meeting. He shall perform such other related duties as may be required of him.

(TOP) ARTICLE XVIII. GRAND LIEUTENANT STRATEGUS

Section 1. The Grand Lieutenant Strategus shall be a member of an undergraduate chapter. He shall assist the Grand Strategus in the performance of his duties and act for the Grand Strategus in case of his absence.

(TOP) ARTICLE XIX. PROVINCE POLEMARCH

Section 1. There shall be a Province Polemarch for each Province of the Fraternity. He shall be a sustaining member of an alumni chapter of the Fraternity with residence within the Province. The Grand Polemarch shall appoint each Province Polemarch in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 2. Province Polemarchs shall visit chapters and alumni associations within their Provinces and render written reports of their findings and recommendations to the Grand Polemarch. When hazing infractions occur, Province Polemarchs or persons duly authorized by the Grand Polemarch shall have the authority to hold hearings and to issue cease and desist orders to chapters or individual members so long as the actions are consistent with the Constitution, Statutes, Pronouncement on Hazing, and rules and regulations of the Fraternity. Province Polemarchs shall have the authority after a hearing authorized by the Statutes, to suspend, fine or expel individual members, chapters or alumni associations only as set forth in the Pronouncement on Hazing, and the rules and regulations of the Fraternity relating to hazing matters. When non-hazing infractions occur, Province Polemarchs and Hearing Officers shall hold hearings in the same manner as in hazing matters. All actions, including findings of fact in non-hazing matters, taken by Province Polemarchs or Hearing Officers, may be appealed to the Board of Appeals in accordance with the Statutes. [Adopted at 76th Grand Chapter Meeting]

Section 3. Province Polemarchs shall annually appoint advisors for each undergraduate chapter within their respective Provinces. Chapter advisors shall live within the Province and participate in meetings of the chapter(s) under their supervision at least once each month, except as otherwise provided by the college or university concerned.

Section 4. Subject to the Executive Committee and the Statutes, Province Polemarchs and undergraduate chapter advisors shall receive such expenses as are necessary for the performance of their duties.

(TOP) ARTICLE XX. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Section 1. The Executive Director shall be a member in good standing with the Fraternity. He shall serve as custodian of all archives, records and properties of the Fraternity. He shall receipt, deposit and record all moneys received and account for it to the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer in accordance with statutory procedures. He shall currently maintain the Grand Role of the Fraternity. He shall act as secretary of the Grand Chapter, the Grand Board, and the Executive Committee, without membership in any of these. Under the direction of the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer, he shall record (or see to the recording and proper distribution of) minutes. He shall be responsible for publishing and issuing the Confidential Bulletin. He shall issue all charters, Constitutions, Rituals, songbooks, histories, certificates, insignia, and such other items as may be required of him. He shall act as custodian of the Grand Seal of the Fraternity. He shall preserve all contracts of the Fraternity. In the prescribed books, he shall inscribe all Constitution amendments, Statutes, Resolutions, and orders or decisions of the Grand Polemarch or the Grand Board in the manner required by that body. He shall conduct such correspondence as befits his office. He shall supervise the staff of the International Headquarters. Under the supervision of the Grand Board, he shall engage in such travel missions as may be required of him and perform such other related duties as may be assigned.

(TOP) ARTICLE XXI. GENERAL COUNSEL

Section 1. The Grand Polemarch, within 30 days of his election and with the approval of the Grand Board, shall appoint a qualified member of the Fraternity to serve as General Counsel. Under the direction of the Grand Polemarch, and subject to the policy guidance of the Grand Board, the General Counsel shall represent the Fraternity in situations requiring professional legal services. He shall advise the Fraternity, its officers and official bodies on all legal matters of concern to them.

Section 2. The Grand Polemarch may authorize travel expenses and per them for the General Counsel when incurred in the service of the Fraternity. Under certain circumstances as determined by the Grand Board, the General Counsel may be authorized a professional fee for services as determined by the Statutes.

(TOP) ARTICLE XXII. PUBLICATIONS

Section 1. There shall be a Story of Kappa Alpha Psi published at such time and in such manner as prescribed in the Statutes.

Section 2. There shall be a journal known as the Kappa Alpha Psi Journal published and issued in accordance with the Statutes. The Grand Polemarch with the approval of the Grand Board shall appoint a qualified member of the Fraternity to serve as the Kappa Alpha Psi Journal editor. The Grand Board may remove the Kappa Alpha Psi Journal editor by a majority vote.

Section 3. There shall be an esoteric publication called the Confidential Bulletin, published and issued in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 4. There shall be a Kappa Alpha Psi Songbook, published and issued in accordance with the Statutes.

(TOP) ARTICLE XXIII. PUBLICITY AND PUBLICATIONS COMMISSION

Section 1. The Grand Polemarch shall appoint a Publicity and Publications Commission composed of the Grand Historian and four other qualified members. Each of the four members shall be appointed for a term of four years, except the chairman shall be selected by the Grand Polemarch for a term concurrent with that of elective national officers of the Grand Chapter.

Section 2. The Publicity and Publications Commission shall - [i] formulate and recommend to the Grand Board policy concerning the official publications of the Fraternity and the release of information to the public press, [ii] give functional supervision to the budgeting, preparation, and publishing of the official publications of the Fraternity, [iii] facilitate and otherwise effectuate publication and periodic revision of the official publications of the Fraternity which are not issued at regularly recurring periods, and [iv] perform such other related duties as may be required of it.

Section 3. The Publicity and Publications Commission shall formulate such directives as are necessary to the full and complete effectuation of its responsibilities.

Section 4. All actions by the Publicity and Publications shall be subject to review and modification by the Executive Committee.

Section 5. The Publicity and Publications Commission shall make such reports as may be required of it.

(TOP) ARTICLE XXIV. THE NATIONAL SERVICE PROGRAM

Section 1. There shall be a national service program of the Fraternity as prescribed by the Statutes.

(TOP) ARTICLE XXV. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in the Fraternity shall be limited to those persons initiated by chapters as specifically provided by the Statutes.

Section 2. Any male student of good moral character, pursuing an AB degree (or equivalent degree) in regular attendance at a four year college or university where an undergraduate chapter of the Fraternity is located may become a member only after he has complied with the academic requirements of such college or university concerning initiations into college fraternities. If there are no such requirements, he may become a member only after receiving credits equal to one fourth necessary for graduation.

Section 3. Any male student of good moral character and in good academic standing enrolled in a college transfer program of a junior or community college may be initiated by an undergraduate chapter after - [i] completing three full semesters of work, [ii] satisfactorily meeting the academic requirements of the college where the undergraduate chapter is located, and [iii] complying with the required standards established by the members of the Grand Chapter.

Section 4. Undergraduate chapters shall have the right to initiate students of colleges and universities other than those attending institutions where such chapters are chartered, provided such initiations receive advance approval by the Grand Board in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 5. No person may be initiated by an undergraduate chapter in violation of the regulations of the college or university where the chapter is located or from which the chapter secures new members.

Section 6. Any undergraduate chapter may initiate applicants receiving the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the financial members of the chapter, present and voting at a regular meeting of such chapter, in accordance with the Constitution, Statutes and Fraternity Regulations. A vote of two or more financial members shall prevent the initiation of an applicant by an undergraduate chapter with ten or fewer members.

Section 7. Alumni chapters may initiate any male person of good moral character in possession of an AB degree or the equivalent degree from a college or university on par with institutions where undergraduate chapters of this Fraternity are established in accordance with the Statutes. No person shall be initiated without the affirmative vote of 90% of the financial members of the chapter, present and voting at a regular meeting of such chapter.

Section 8. Each applicant for membership in this Fraternity shall be thoroughly investigated in a manner indicated by the Statutes.

Section 9. All initiations shall be strictly in accordance with the Constitution, Statutes, and Ritual.

Section 10. All members in regular attendance at a college or university within the jurisdiction of an undergraduate chapter of this Fraternity shall be known as undergraduate members in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 11. All members who are not in regular attendance at a college or university within the jurisdiction of an undergraduate chapter of this Fraternity shall be known as alumni members in accordance with the Statutes. Alumni members shall be divided into three classes- [1] Sustaining alumni members, [2] Non-sustaining alumni members, and [3] Supporting alumni members.

Section 12. Sustaining Alumni Members shall be alumni members who contribute to the financial support of the Fraternity in the form of regular dues and assessments.

Section 13. Non Sustaining Alumni Members shall be alumni members who do not contribute to the financial support of the Fraternity in the form of regular dues and assessments. Non-sustaining members shall forfeit all rights and privileges enjoyed by sustaining alumni members of the Fraternity.

Section 14. Supporting Alumni Members shall be alumni members who have been financially delinquent for five years or more who wish to support the Fraternity by paying a predetermined fee directly to the International Headquarters rather than contribute through a local chapter. Rights and privileges of supporting alumni members shall be defined by Statute.

Section 15. There shall be a class of membership in Kappa Alpha Psi known as Life Membership available to members of the Fraternity who have not been expelled or suspended, or are on probation. Such membership shall not be transferable.

Section 16. An undergraduate member who transfers from one college (university) to another college (university) may transfer his membership from the previous chapter to the chapter of jurisdiction at the new institution.

Section 17. Members and former members of undergraduate chapters shall be required to cease or continue membership in such chapters in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 18. An alumni member may transfer his membership from an alumni chapter or alumni association to another alumni chapter or alumni association in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 19. No member who holds or has held sustaining membership in any alumni chapter or alumni association shall be subsequently permitted active membership in any undergraduate chapter.

Section 20. No member of this Fraternity may resign his membership for any reason whatsoever.

Section 21. No person shall be eligible for membership in Kappa Alpha Psi who is (has been) affiliated with any other college Greek letter organization of the same character.

Section 22. All members of the Fraternity shall be liable for misconduct as described in The Constitution and Statutes of Kappa Alpha Psi.

Section 23. Members shall have the right of appeal from decisions relating to misconduct under the Statutes of Kappa Alpha Psi.

Section 24. All voting concerning prospective new members shall be by ballot.

(TOP) ARTICLE XXVI. UNDERGRADUATE CHAPTERS

Section 1. The Grand Chapter in session or the Grand Board between Grand Chapter meetings may establish undergraduate chapters in accordance with the Constitution and Statutes.

Section 2. Letters of the Greek alphabet taken in consecutive order shall designate undergraduate chapters. Upon exhaustion of the Greek alphabet, undergraduate chapters shall be designated by combining letters in the same consecutive order. There shall be no Alpha Alpha undergraduate chapter designation. In addition, the Province affiliation of each undergraduate chapter shall be indicated by the use of letters following the name of the chapter and shall be enclosed by parentheses. The full names of undergraduate chapters shall be in the following form - The Indiana University Chapter, the Alpha of Kappa Alpha Psi (NC) The University of Illinois Chapter, the Beta of Kappa Alpha Psi (NC) or The Texas College Chapter, the Beta Beta of Kappa Alpha Psi (SW).

Board direction and approval, and the Constitution, Statutes and Fraternity Regulations.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall meet at least once each calendar year or as often as necessary to gain working knowledge of the International Headquarters operation in terms of procedures and personnel efficiency to insure adherence to the Constitution, Statutes and Fraternity Regulations, and to facilitate such Fraternity programs, plans and purposes as may come within the jurisdiction of the Executive Committee.

(TOP) STATUTE 3. REVENUES

Section 1. The initiation fee for men seeking membership in Kappa Alpha Psi shall be determined by a majority vote of the Grand Board and approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting. The initiation fee adopted at a Grand Chapter meeting shall become effective as of the first day of the fiscal year following its passage.

Section 2. The annual dues for members who are not currently expelled, suspended or on probation and who are not life members of the Fraternity shall be determined by a majority vote of the Grand Board and approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting. The annual dues adopted at a Grand Chapter meeting shall become effective as of the first day of the fiscal year following its passage.

Section 3. Any assessment imposed upon members who are not currently expelled, suspended or on probation shall be determined by a majority vote of the Grand Board and approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting. The assessment adopted at a Grand Chapter meeting shall become effective as of the first day of the fiscal year following its passage. Only members who pay the assessment shall be eligible to - [i] register for Grand Chapter meetings and Councils, [ii] serve as delegates and alternate delegates of chapters and alumni associations to Grand Chapter meetings and Councils, [iii] hold office at any level of the Fraternity, [iv] serve on committees and commissions at any level of the Fraternity, [v] receive awards at any level of the Fraternity, and [vi] receive such other entitlements determined by the members of the Grand Chapter.

Section 4. Any assessment imposed upon chapters and alumni associations of the Fraternity shall be determined by a majority vote of the Grand Board and approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting. The assessment adopted at a Grand Chapter meeting shall become effective as of the first day of the fiscal year following its passage. Only chapters and alumni associations that pay the assessment shall be eligible to - [i] register for Grand Chapter meetings and Councils, [ii] receive awards at any level of the Fraternity, [iii] conduct programs leading to the initiation of men into the Fraternity, and [iv] receive such other entitlements determined by the members of the Grand Chapter.

Section 5. The fee for members eligible to become life members of the Fraternity shall be determined by a majority vote of the Grand Board and approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting. The fee adopted at a Grand Chapter meeting shall become effective as of the first day of the fiscal year following its passage.

Section 6. The life membership fee may be paid in a single installment or over a period not to exceed four years. Members selecting the installment option shall pay an enrollment fee equal to 25% of the total fee. The enrollment fee shall be in addition to any annual dues paid by the member during the fiscal year in which he enrolls. A minimum payment equal to the enrollment fee shall be due one year from the enrollment date and on each subsequent anniversary date. A member who fails to make the minimum payment within 30 days of the anniversary date shall forfeit his right to continue with the installment option. A member who has forfeited the installment option may reenroll in the life membership program and shall pay such amounts that are in effect on the date of his re-enrollment.

Section 7. All fines for violating any - [i] provision of The Constitution and Statutes of Kappa Alpha Psi or [ii] regulation adopted by the Fraternity - shall be determined by a majority vote of the Grand Board and approved by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting.

Section 8. The fees adopted at a Grand Chapter meeting shall become effective as of the first day of the fiscal year following its passage.

Section 9. Each chapter, alumni association and Province shall pay the registration fee for at least one Grand Chapter delegate. The delegate registration fee shall be paid no later than the beginning of the Province Council Meetings immediately preceding the Grand Chapter Meeting. Province Council Meeting shall be held and concluded no later than April 30th. A chapter or alumni association that does not pay the delegate registration fee shall be assessed a fine determined in accordance with Section 7. It shall not be - [i] permitted to register for future Grand Chapter meetings until the fine has been paid, [ii] permitted to register for any Councils until the fine has been paid, [iii] permitted to conduct any activities leading to the initiation of men into the Fraternity, and [iv] eligible for any Fraternity awards. The fine imposed upon a chapter or alumni association for failing to pay the delegate registration fee may be waived by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the Grand Board. The chapter or alumni association must file an application with the Executive Director indicating the payment of the fine would impose a financial hardship upon the chapter or alumni association and must pay the delegate registration fee of the most recent Grand Chapter meeting. Said application must be filed within 90 days of the adjournment of a Grand Chapter meeting and shall require the written endorsement of the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction. Said waiver shall negate the restrictions imposed upon a chapter or alumni association set forth in this section. [Adopted at the 76th Grand Chapter Meeting]

Section 10. Each chapter and alumni association shall pay the registration fee for at least one Council delegate. The delegate registration fee shall be paid to the Province of jurisdiction in accordance with procedures established by the Province. A chapter or alumni association that does not pay the delegate registration fee shall be assessed a fine determined by the Province Board of Directors and approved by the delegates to a Council. The delegate registration fee and the fine imposed upon a chapter or alumni association for failing to pay the delegate registration fee may be waived by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the Province Board of Directors.

Section 11. Conducting an initiation willfully without the prior approval of the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction or the initiation of an ineligible person shall be considered an illegal initiation. It shall result in an automatic suspension of the chapter for not less than six months and a fine determined in accordance with Section 7.

Section 12. The Keeper of Records of chapters shall confirm initiations to the International Headquarters and the Province Polemarch. Failure to confirm initiations shall subject the chapter to a fine determined in accordance with Section 7.

Section 13. Chapters and alumni associations submitting dues to the International Headquarters shall list - [i] the full names of the members, [ii] the permanent and current mailing addresses of the members, [iii] the year and chapter of initiation, and [iv] the chapter or alumni association and dates of identification immediately prior to the current affiliation.

(TOP) STATUTE 4. FRATERNITY ACCOUNTING

Section 1. The Grand Board shall employ a Certified Public Accountant to audit the accounts of the Fraternity each fiscal year. He shall render a long form certificate presenting in detail the methods used to verify all balance sheet and operating account items. The certificate shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting and auditing standards. The amounts reported shall include detailed schedules.

Section 2. The Executive Director shall issue quarterly income and expense statements to all members of the Grand Board. There shall be an annual statement that provides a current delineation of Fraternity assets and liabilities compared with like delineation for the same period of the prior fiscal year. An annual statement shall be issued to - [i] all Founders, [ii] all Past Grand Polemarchs, [iii] all national officers, [iv] all Province Polemarchs, and [v] such others as hereafter may be determined by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. The Executive Director shall issue financial cards to members in accordance with Fraternity Regulations.

Section 4. Revenue from the several Fraternity Endowment funds shall be credited to those Endowment funds except as otherwise provided by the Statutes.

Section 5. Undergraduate chapters shall maintain uniform books of accounts and membership records in accordance with a system devised by the Executive Committee. Failure of an undergraduate chapter to comply with this Statute shall subject it to a fine levied by the Grand Board.

Section 6. Undergraduate chapters shall make financial reports to the Executive Committee and the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction within ten days following the close of each applicable semester, trimester or quarter of the school year. The reports shall include a summary of chapter indebtedness, cash balance, receipts and disbursements covering the reporting period, a cost inventory of its assets and such other items as the Executive Committee determines.

Section 7. Upon the inactivation of a chapter or alumni association, the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction shall make certain the cash balances are placed in the custody of the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer for safe keeping during the period of inactivation. Undergraduate chapters suspending activity for the summer months shall retain any cash balances in depositories of their choosing and shall file a financial report in accordance with this Statute. They shall furnish the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction with certification of the deposit.

Section 8. The Executive Committee shall draft the Fraternity budget and submit it to the Grand Board for adoption at least 30 days in advance of the budget year to which it applies. The budget shall be included in The State of the Fraternity report.

Section 9. All undergraduate chapters shall adopt annual operating budgets. They shall promptly forward copies of such budgets to - [i] the Executive Committee, [ii] the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction, and [iii] the undergraduate chapter alumni advisor.

(TOP) STATUTE 5. FUND DISBURSEMENT

Section 1. The Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer and the Executive Director shall give bond to the extent determined by the Grand Board incident to the handling of Fraternity funds. The cost of the bond shall be borne by the Fraternity.

Section 2. The Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall pay out Fraternity funds only within the budgetary limits adopted by the Grand Board. The Executive Director shall initiate and sign an original and two copies of a standard voucher. No check shall be of consequence unless signed by the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer and the Executive Director.

Section 3. Nothing in this Statute shall mean the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall be required to pay out Fraternity funds when he deems such payment contrary to the Constitution or Statutes or not in the best interest of the Fraternity. Under those circumstances, the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall submit his views in writing to the Grand Polemarch whose written ruling shall be final and shall absolve the Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer of any resultant liability.

Section 4. Any reimbursement for expenses to any officer, committee, commission or member of Kappa Alpha Psi beyond the specific budget allowances shall require the advance clearance in writing by the Executive Committee.

Section 5. The Keepers of Exchequers of chapters and alumni associations shall pay out chapter or alumni association funds only upon written order of chapter and alumni association Polemarch, provided that such payments shall be made by check. No check shall be of consequence unless signed by the chapter or alumni association Polemarch and the Keeper of Exchequer.

Section 6. The Executive Director shall be paid an annual salary determined by a contract of employment between the Executive Director and the Fraternity. The starting salary and yearly increases shall be conditioned upon the current or projected condition of the Fraternity exchequer, and his performance as primarily measured by the efficiency of the operation of the International Headquarters and the increase in the participating membership resulting from aggressive actions by the Executive Director.

Section 7. The Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall be paid a yearly stipend. The Grand Board shall adjust the stipend upward or downward based upon the job requirements and the current or projected conditions of the Fraternity exchequer.

Section 8. The Editor of the Kappa Alpha Psi Journal shall be paid a yearly stipend. The Grand Board shall determine the amount of the stipend from annually after considering the job requirements and the performance of the Editor of the Kappa Alpha Psi Journal, and the current or projected conditions of the Fraternity exchequer.

Section 6. Fraternity rental agents shall be empowered to maintain a contingency fund, determined by the Executive Committee, for the payment of emergency maintenance needs as may occur. The agents shall prepare a standardized report of collections and expenses and forward it monthly with receipts for paid bills to the International Headquarters.

Section 7. The Executive Committee shall make certain - [i] Fraternity owned undergraduate chapter houses are maintained, [ii] any necessary protective services and janitorial services are provided, [iii] grass is cut during the summer months, [iv] a house mother or manager is employed wherever necessary or practical, [v] creditable furnishings and capital equipment are purchased, [vi] capital maintenance is performed, [vii] insurance coverage, including liability insurance, is maintained on the properties, and [viii] other customary business management services are provided.

Section 8. Undergraduate chapters occupying Fraternity owned houses are responsible for supervising the activities and/or performing any actions necessary for the efficient operation of such houses with particular attention to house and grounds keeping.

Section 9. The Executive Committee shall devise and put into execution a standard form for the mandatory use of undergraduate chapters in reporting rental accounts receivable to appropriate college or university authorities.

Section 10. No undergraduate chapter shall acquire a house by rental or purchase in the name of Kappa Alpha Psi without submitting a plan in advance of such rental or purchase for review and sanction by the Grand Board. If such Grand Board reaction is unfavorable to the proposed rental or purchase, said plan for rental or purchase shall be dropped forthwith by the chapter and the Executive Committee notified accordingly. Failure to follow the directives in such cases will subject the chapter in question to appropriate disciplinary action by the Grand Board.

Section 11. Undergraduate chapters occupying Fraternity owned real property shall file the names and college addresses of all occupants of such houses at the beginning of each semester or quarter With the Executive Committee, the authorized rental agent, and the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction. They shall communicate any changes in such addresses that occur Within such semester or quarter to these same officials.

(TOP) STATUTE 8. THE CHAPTER HOUSE ENDOWMENT FUND

Section 1. The Grand Board shall administer the Chapter House Endowment Fund in accordance with the Constitution, Statutes, and Fraternity Regulations.

Section 2. The purpose of the Chapter House Endowment Fund is to make loans to assist with the construction, purchase, remodeling or repair of undergraduate chapter houses. A portion of the cost of such construction, remodeling or repair shall be in possession of the applicant at the time of application. The Grand Board shall determine the required portion.

Section 3. No portion of the Chapter House Endowment Fund is to assist with housing for the use of alumni chapters and alumni associations, and for the construction, purchase or renovation of alumni chapter or alumni association housing.

Section 4. Undergraduate chapters shall submit applications for loans from the Chapter House Endowment Fund to the Grand Board.

Section 5. Undergraduate chapters, individuals or alumni groups that provide undergraduate chapter housing that use Fraternity funds shall have on hand at least one fourth of the cost of such housing. It shall give assurance that the remaining indebtedness can be amortized within a period agreed upon by the Grand Board and the applicant.

Section 6. The collateral for loans for undergraduate chapter houses shall be a mortgage on the undergraduate chapter house or other security to the Fraternity.

Section 7. Agreements for loans from the Chapter House Endowment Fund shall require the monthly payment of principal and interest based on the term of the loan, and 1/12th of the annual real estate taxes and insurance premiums. In cases where the Fraternity holds a second mortgage and the payment of principal is to begin at a subsequent date, the agreement shall require regular periodic payment of interest.

Section 8. Default by a borrower shall cause the Grand Board to exercise such rights as may accrue to the Fraternity with respect to the property concerned.

Section 9. A borrower may renew a loan at or before maturity, provided the same statutory requirements are satisfied that were in effect on the original loan date or such other requirements as are now statutory.

Section 10. The Grand Board shall collect or supervise the collection of rents from members living in undergraduate chapter houses and shall maintain such collections in the Chapter House Endowment Fund to the credit of the houses concerned. The Grand Board may suspend any member from the Fraternity delinquent in the payment of his rent.

Section 11. Properties to which the Fraternity holds title shall be set up as real estate and carried on the balance sheet of the Fraternity at cost less accumulated depreciation. All income from the properties shall be carried as rent collected.

Section 12. A competent and reputable local appraiser shall appraise any property involved in a request for a loan at the expense of the borrower. The appraisal shall reflect the market value of the property.

Section 13. The Executive Committee or other authority determined by the Grand Board shall manage all undergraduate chapter houses owned exclusively by the Fraternity and shall maintain the property in good yearly repair.

Section 14. The housing fund shall bear only the expenses of procuring, maintaining, and administering the Chapter House Endowment Fund. No portion of the Chapter House Endowment Fund shall be diverted from its purpose as stated in The Constitution and Statutes of Kappa Alpha Psi.

(TOP) STATUTE 9. CHAPTER ENDOWMENT FUND

Section 1. The Fraternity may maintain an endowment fund for the acceptance and expenditure of gifts or bequests in the interest of specific chapters.

Section 2. The Fraternity shall safeguard this Endowment Fund and expend it in strict accordance with the bequests or gifts from which it derives its income.

(TOP) STATUTE 10. UNDERGRADUATE CHAPTER EXPANSION FUND

Section 1. The Grand Board shall administer the Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund.

Section 2. The Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund shall derive funds from the following sources

- A. $.50 from the current Grand Chapter dues of each member;
- B. $2.00 from each initiate registered by a chapter; and
- C. Undergraduate chapters or individuals who voluntarily contribute to the Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund

Section 3. All money collected in accordance with Section 2 shall be credited to the Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund. Appropriate records shall be maintained to document the source of these funds.

Section 4. The Grand Keeper of Records and Exchequer shall issue a report in The State of the Fraternity report presented at each Grand Chapter Meeting indicating the status of the Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund. This report shall provide a summary of all activity of the Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund since the previous Grand Chapter meeting. The Executive Director shall issue annually in the Confidential Bulletin the guidelines approved by the Grand Board and a statement of the Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund balances. Funds received for the Undergraduate Chapter Expansion Fund shall be used only for the designated purposes.

Section 5. An undergraduate chapter can withdraw deposits credited in its name, subject to the approval of the Grand Board. The chapter shall submit its request in writing to the Grand Board stating the purpose for the request. In no instance shall a chapter withdraw its savings in intervals of less than three years. The undergraduate chapter is not required to pay interest or replace any portion of the withdrawal. It can replace any amount it deems appropriate.

(TOP) STATUTE 11. STUDENT AID

Section 1. The purpose of the Student Aid Fund is to provide loans for the financial aid of worthy members of undergraduate chapters. Members should submit loan applications to the Grand Board. The borrower shall execute a note or series of notes payable to the Fraternity, and subject to such terms and conditions determined by the Executive Committee. The Executive Director shall be the custodian of all such notes.

Section 2. The Grand Board shall administer the Student Aid Fund.

Section 3. The Executive Committee shall designate the cash balances of the Student Aid Fund kept in the Scholarship and Fellowship Endowment Fund. The Executive Director shall annotate the Fraternity records in accordance with the designation of the Executive Committee. Any surplus cash of the Student Aid Fund shall be invested in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 4. There shall be a system of national scholarships of $750 each from the Scholarship Endowment Fund. Each Province shall award the scholarship on a best-qualified basis to a male freshman or Junior College transfer student in his first year entering Indiana University and agreeing to reside in the Diggs Memorial House for one academic year. Each such award winner would receive an additional $250 that the selecting Province would pay into the Scholarship Endowment Fund along with its nomination. Each scholarship shall be known as the Diggs Memorial Scholarship and shall be appropriately publicized.

Section 5. The Province Boards of Directors shall screen candidates for the Diggs Memorial Scholarships and shall certify their winners to the Executive Director. Any chapter in good standing may for cause appeal an award decision to the Executive Committee and the decision thereon shall be final, subject to review by the Grand Board.

Section 6. There shall be a Kappa Alpha Psi Student Revolving Loan Fund to provide emergency loan assistance to students on campuses where such Funds have been established. The Executive Committee shall formulate the procedural implementation of the Kappa Alpha Psi Student Revolving Loan Fund. Donations and contributions from the Scholarship and Fellowship Endowment Fund shall support the Kappa Alpha Psi Student Revolving Loan Fund.

Section 1. The Life Membership Endowment Fund shall consist of revenue derived from - [i] the payment of Life Membership fees, [ii] earnings on investments, and [iii] gifts or other sources.

Section 2. The Grand Board shall administer the Life Membership Endowment Fund. The Grand Board shall elect a corporate trustee and execute a trust agreement with such trustee to administer this Endowment Fund. The trustee shall file periodic reports with the Grand Board and shall pay over such amounts to the operating fund from the earnings of said trust on such periodic basis as the Grand Board may direct. Payment of the corpus of the trust shall require an eight tenth affirmative vote of the Grand Board. Under no circumstances shall more than 20% of the corpus be paid over or withdrawn during any calendar year.

(TOP) STATUTE 13. PUBLICATIONS ENDOWMENT FUND

Section 1. The Publications Endowment Fund shall consist of - [i] any gifts, grants or philanthropic contributions, [(ii) revenue derived from earnings on investments, [iii] sales of publications, and [iv] gifts or other sources.

Section 2. The Grand Board shall administer the Publications Endowment Fund. The Grand Board shall elect a corporate trustee and execute a trust agreement with such trustee to administer this Endowment Fund. The trustee shall file periodic reports with the Grand and shall pay over such amounts to the operating fund from the earnings of said trust on such periodic basis as the Grand Board may see fit. The basis of this payment shall be the cost of publications. Payment of the corpus of the trust shall require an eight tenth affirmative vote of the Grand Board. Under no circumstances shall more than 4% of the corpus be paid over or withdrawn during any calendar year.

(TOP) STATUTE 14. INTERNATIONAL HEADQUARTERS ENDOWMENT FUND

Section 1. The International Headquarters Endowment Fund shall consist of revenue derived from - [i] cash contributions, [ii] real estate, [iii] insurance policies with the Fraternity designated as beneficiaries, and [iv] other bequests which are designated for this Endowment Fund by the contributor.

Section 2. There shall be a Kappa Trust Club for the International Headquarters Endowment Fund. The members of the Kappa Trust Club shall be members who contribute amounts ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 in cash, insurance policies with the Fraternity designated as beneficiaries, and any other bequest to this Endowment Fund.

Section 3. The Grand Board shall administer the International Headquarters Endowment Fund. The Grand Board shall elect a corporate trustee and execute a trust agreement with such trustee to administer this Endowment Fund. The trustee shall file periodic reports with the Grand Board and shall pay over the earnings of said Endowment Fund on such periodic basis as the Grand Board may direct. At no time should more than 1% of the corpus of the Endowment Fund be used between Grand Chapter meetings.

(TOP) STATUTE 15. TRAVEL

Section 1. Members are in travel status when duly authorized in accordance with the Statutes to engage in Fraternity business away from their local bases of operation.

Section 2. Members in travel status shall only be reimbursed to the extent of - [i] whatever is most economical or otherwise advantageous to the Fraternity and consistent with allowable time, [ii] the availability of travel accommodations, [iii] the accessibility of the business site, and [iv] the nature and urgency of the business to be performed. Reimbursement for transportation shall be restricted to no more than the fare for round trip air coach travel or round trip first class air travel when air coach accommodation is not available. The reimbursement to a member in travel status who uses his private automobile shall not exceed the maximum per mile limit established by the Internal Revenue Service for the business use of an automobile. The reimbursement to a member in travel status who uses a vehicle from a rental agency shall not exceed the daily rate for a standard size vehicle. When in travel status, a person shall be reimbursed for lodging and meals. The maximum reimbursement for lodging shall be the lesser of the single room rate established by the federal government for the city where the person is lodged and the actual single room rate at the property where the person is lodged. The daily meal allowance shall be the lesser of the meal allowance established by the federal government for the city where the person is lodged and the actual meal expenses. Persons shall only be reimbursed for the period they are conducting Fraternity business and shall submit receipts to the Executive Director for all expenses.

Section 3. The Grand Polemarch and the Executive Committee shall have the power to authorize any non-recurrent travel in the business interest of the Fraternity and accordingly to reimburse such travel. The member concerned or the Executive Director on behalf of the member concerned shall initiate a formal request before each travel mission and forward the request to the Grand Polemarch for approval. Immediately following such approval, the Grand Polemarch shall send a copy to the member concerned and to the International Headquarters for permanent filing.

Section 4. The Executive Director shall submit all authorizations for recurrent travel in duplicate to the Grand Polemarch for approval at the beginning of each fiscal year. The Grand Polemarch shall send a copy of the authorization to the members concerned and to the International Headquarters for permanent filing. Recurrent travel authority shall be restricted to members of the Executive Committee, Grand Polemarch, Province Polemarshs, and Executive Director. Recurrent travel shall mean continuing travel within budgetary limitations subject to control of the Grand Board.

Section 5. Claims for reimbursement of travel expenses shall be submitted for payment on a standard Fraternity form within the first ten days of the month immediately following the 30 day period to which such claims apply. The Grand Polemarch and the Executive Director shall authenticate each claim before its payment. Completed claims shall be matched with the corresponding authorization and appropriately filed copy with the International Headquarters.

Section 6. The following items shall not be reimbursable - [i] expenses incurred for the convenience of the member, such as indirect routing or stop over for personal reasons, [ii] expenses of the families and unauthorized companions of members, [iii] expenses for entertainment, [iv] items entered on vouchers as incidental or services, or [v] expenses incurred within a designated city more than eight hours before or after Fraternity business is initiated or concluded, except where the inconvenience of travel dictates the necessity for early travel or late departure and is accordingly sanctioned by the Grand Polemarch.

(TOP) STATUTE 16. ELECTION OF NATIONAL OFFICERS

Section 1. There shall be a Nominating Committee of the Fraternity that shall serve before and during sessions of a Grand Chapter meeting.

Section 2. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of a chairman and two representatives from each Province elected during a Council. One of the Province representatives shall be a member of an alumni chapter and one shall be a member of an undergraduate chapter. The chairman shall be elected at each regular meeting of the Grand Chapter. The Province Polemarch shall inform the Executive Director of the members elected at his Council at least 60 days in advance of a regular Grand Chapter meeting.

Section 3. National officers, Province Polemarchs, members receiving monetary compensation for services rendered to the Fraternity and financially delinquent members shall be denied membership on the Nominating Committee.

Section 4. The Executive Director shall publish the names and addresses of the Nominating Committee in a release sent to [i] all Founders, [ii] Past Grand Polemarchs, [iii] all national officers, [iv] all Province Polemarchs, and [v] all chapters and alumni associations immediately upon notification to him of the members elected at a Council by the Province Polemarch or the representative of the Grand Board attending the Council.

Section 5. The Executive Director shall prepare appropriate voting devices for use of the Nominating Committee members and the members of the Grand Chapter in accordance with existing regulations.

Section 6. The Executive Committee shall prepare a standard questionnaire for the use of - [i] Founders, [ii] Past Grand Polemarchs, [iii] Province Polemarchs, and [iv] chapters and alumni associations in presenting the qualifications of members for office to the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall not consider a member whose qualifications are not in conformity with the questionnaire.

Section 7. The Nominating Committee chairman shall - [i] determine the financial status (dues, assessments, loans, etc.) with the Fraternity of each member proposed for nomination to an office, [ii] the type of membership held in accordance with the Statutes, [iii] the frequency of and recent attendance at Grand Chapter meetings by the member, [iv] elective and appointed offices held in the service of the Grand Chapter, Province, chapter and alumni association and the years of such offices, and [v] the current status of the member in terms of scholarship, suspensions or other disciplinary actions by the Fraternity or college.

Section 8. No member shall be eligible for office who - [i] has been expelled, suspended or placed on probation by the Fraternity or college, [ii] is scholastically deficient, or [iii] is financially delinquent with the Fraternity at any administrative level.

Section 9. The Nominating Committee chairman shall drop from consideration any proposed nominee found to be ineligible for office in accordance with this Statute. The chairman shall inform the sponsor of such nominee of the reason for such action.

Section 10. If no candidate for nomination to a specific office receives the majority vote of the Nominating Committee, the Nominating Committee shall recommend the candidates receiving the first and second highest number of votes.

Section 11. Each elective national office shall be filled at each Grand Chapter meeting. Members of undergraduate chapters shall fill the offices of Junior Grand Vice Polemarch, Grand Strategus and Grand Lieutenant Strategus.

Section 12. Nominations shall be by majority ballot of the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall make a report placing its nominees into nomination. This report shall be due and presented at a Grand Chapter meeting as the first item of business of the morning session of the day preceding the last official day of a Grand Chapter meeting.

Section 13. Election to a Grand Chapter office shall be majority ballot of the members of the Grand Chapter.

Section 14. The Nominating Committee chairman shall inform the Executive Committee of the nominees for office. Thereafter, he shall forward the related questionnaires, ballots, Eligibility for Office and Consent to Nomination forms to the International Headquarters for keeping until 30 days before the Grand Chapter meeting concerned.

Section 15. The Executive Director shall publish the report of the Nominating Committee in the last issue of the Confidential Bulletin published preceding a Grand Chapter meeting.

Section 16. If a member is elected to office who is not a delegate to the Grand Chapter meeting electing him, he shall by virtue of his election have membership in the Grand Chapter with all rights, privileges and responsibilities thereof.

Section 17. Balloting for national officers shall begin as the first item of business on the afternoon of the day preceding the final day of a Grand Chapter meeting. It shall continue to completion subject to interruptions for the dinner and overnight recess.

Section 18. Candidates for any national office who wish to have their qualifications for office published in the Confidential Bulletin shall file their applications at least 120 days before the starting date of a Grand Chapter meeting.

\(TOP\) STATUTE 17. THE INTERNATIONAL HEADQUARTERS

Section 1. There shall be an International Headquarters of Kappa Alpha Psi located in some central city selected by the Grand Board or a special committee named by the Grand Board.

Section 2. The staff of the International Headquarters shall be - [i] an Executive Director, [ii] a secretary to the Executive Director, [iii] an Assistant Executive Director, and [iv] such other staff determined by the Grand Board.

Section 3. The basic requirements for the office of Executive Director shall include - [i] membership in Kappa Alpha Psi, [ii] college graduate with a major in business management, accounting, money and banking or related subjects, or comparable work experience, [iii] ability to supervise and willingness to accept supervision, [iv] ability to represent the Fraternity before audiences of members or non members, [v] thorough knowledge of the origin and development of Kappa Alpha Psi, [vi] some knowledge of the origin and development of Greek letter organizations in America, and [vii] the ability to promote the Fraternity both within the membership and the nationwide college community. Some actual experience in office organization and management is highly desirable.

Section 4. The Executive Director shall serve as Chief Operating Officer and shall perform or supervise the daily activities of his position, coordinates and administers the Fraternity's policies as defined by the Grand Board of Directors, implement and monitor the budget, monitors the quality of the Fraternity's product and services and ensures maximum member satisfaction. Secures and protects the Fraternity's assets including facilities and equipment.

The Executive Director attends meetings of the Fraternity's Executive Committee and Grand Board of Directors, participates in outside activities that are judged as appropriate and approved by the Executive Committee to enhance the prestige of the Fraternity; broaden the scope of the Fraternity's operation of fulfilling the public obligation of the Fraternity as a participating member of the community.

The Executive Director shall report to the Executive Committee of the Grand Board. [Adopted at the 76th Grand Chapter Meeting] Section 5. The Grand Board may refine and further document the duties, authorities and conditions of work of the Executive Director. It shall execute employment contracts for periods not to exceed two years at a time, subject to renewal.

Section 6. The Executive Committee shall recommend the employment of such permanent headquarters staff to the Grand Board necessary for the successful operation of the International Headquarters.

Section 7. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to employ any temporary worker or short-term staff incident to the accomplishment of emergency or special assignments. Temporary worker shall mean staff employed for a total period of ten days or less.

(TOP) STATUTE 18. EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES

Section 1. The Executive Committee shall assign and affix a number to each item of Fraternity owned equipment regardless of its location or use. Such numbers shall be affixed in metal or lacquered decalcomania for permanent wear.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall maintain a perpetual inventory of all Fraternity owned equipment that reflects - [i] the number assigned, [ii] the quantity, [iii] the description, [iv] the date of purchase, [v] the vendor, [vi] the cost, [vii] the depreciation, and [viii] the estimated current value of each item of Fraternity owned equipment.

Section 3. The inventory of equipment shall reflect by number and description any items discarded because they are beyond repair. No item shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of without written approval of the Executive Committee. The number of each discarded item of equipment shall be retained on the inventory record with a dated entry as to the action taken. New numbers shall be assigned to any replacements.

Section 4. The Executive Committee shall maintain a perpetual inventory of all Fraternity owned supplies that reflects - [i] a description of each supply item, [ii] the date of purchase, [iii] the vendor, [iv] purchase amount, [v] cost, and [vi] balance on hand at stated intervals. All supplies shall be kept under lock and key.

Section 5. The Executive Director shall transfer equipment or supplies to locations other than the International Headquarters by the use of a standard form that bears the inventory number. If equipment, the form contains a description of the item being transferred, the number of units transferred, and the date of transfer. Such transmittal forms shall be prepared in triplicate and distributed as follows: the original and one copy to the intended receiver with the request that the original be dated, signed and returned to the International Headquarters for filing, and one control copy for retention by the International Headquarters pending return of the requested original copy. A dated notation shall be made in the appropriate space on the inventory sheet reflecting the transmittal action and the related file reference.

Section 6. Upon return of any item of equipment from another location to the International Headquarters, appropriate dated notation of return shall be entered on the inventory sheet and the transmittal form and the latter shall be forwarded to the original signatory of that form.

Section 7. The Executive Committee shall maintain rigid controls over the Ritual.

(TOP) STATUTE 19. CHARTERS

Section 1. An undergraduate chapter of this Fraternity may be established upon a group petition of at least seven students in regular attendance at any duly recognized college or university in accordance with the Constitution and the following conditions -

- A. The petition shall follow a standard format determined by the Executive Committee;
- B. The petition shall list the petitioners and include - [i] their affiliation currently or in the past with any other similar organization, [ii] the chapter and date of their initiation into Kappa Alpha Psi, if members; [iii] the number of hours of college work earned and the number required for graduation; [iv] their degrees if any; [v] their majors and minors; [vi] transcript of credits and grades earned for the current period or the period immediately preceding the date of the petition; [vii] current cost of living at the college or university; [viii] statement from an appropriate college or university official that the petitioners are current with their financial obligations; [ix] the period over which the group operated as a local fraternity or club prior to the petition and the name of such fraternity or club; [x] the attitude of university officials towards the chartering of a chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi and the names and titles of such officials; [xi] the names and titles of Kappa members of the college faculty or administration; [xii] the names, addresses and positions of any Kappa alumni within or near the immediate vicinity of the proposed chapter; [xiii] the number of national fraternities on the campus and the names of such fraternities if fewer than ten; [xiv] the number of fraternities by name owning, purchasing or renting houses if fewer than ten; [xv] the approximate membership of each fraternity by name where there are ten or fewer fraternities; [xvi] the number of male students on the campus if fewer than 300; [xvii] the possibility for integration within the potential new members and subsequently within the proposed chapter; [xviii] whether there is a local Inter Fraternity Council or other Greek letter Council recognized by the college or university and if so, its affiliation requirements and attitude towards a chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi; [xix] the extra curricular activities and successes of the several petitioners; [xx] scholastic honors of the several petitioners; and [xxi] such other information as shall facilitate an objective valuation of the petition;

- C. The original and five copies shall be forwarded in typewritten form to the Executive Director, who shall forward a copy to each member of the Executive Committee and the likely Province Polemarch of jurisdiction, retaining one copy for the International Headquarters files;
- D. The Executive Committee shall have the primary responsibility for examining petitions in terms of authenticity and objective merit. If its examination reflects a majority opinion that the petition is worthy of further inquiry, it shall vote on the necessity for an on site investigation. Where such vote is in the affirmative, the Executive Director or another person chosen by the Executive Committee shall be required to make an investigation and report his findings and recommendations to the Grand Board for their written votes on the granting of a charter;
- E. If the examination by the Executive Committee reflects as much as a one half opinion either that the school or the petitioners do not qualify, or - [i] that the proposed chapter will not have the endorsement of the school, [ii] that an insufficient number of available male students are in regular attendance at the school to give reasonable assurance of continuing operation of a chapter if established, or [iii] other important negative aspects, this shall be made known to the remaining members of the Grand Board prior to a final determining vote taken by the Grand Board in writing; and
- F. No charter shall be granted unless by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the Grand Board.

Section 2. A petition for an undergraduate chapter may also be granted by the affirmative vote of three-fourths of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting, provided such petition has been earlier presented to and investigated by or upon the authority of the Grand Board.

Section 3. The amount submitted with each petition for an undergraduate chapter shall be determined in accordance with Statute 3, Section 8. The amount shall be applied to the cost of investigations incident to such petitions. If the charter is denied, the unexpended portion of such sum shall be returned to the petitioners with an accounting of the expended portion. If the charter is granted, the unexpended portion shall be credited to the cost of establishing the chapter.

Section 4. An alumni chapter may be chartered upon the petition of at least ten men with membership in the Fraternity living within a single community or adjacent communities who will affiliate with such chapter if chartered. No person without existing membership in the Fraternity shall be given such membership in lieu of initiation. The petition shall be originated and processed in exact accordance with the Statutes and Fraternity Regulations. The amount submitted with each petition for an alumni chapter shall be determined in accordance with Statute 3, Section 8. The amount shall be applied to the cost incident to establishing the chapter. If the charter is denied, the unexpended portion of such sum shall be returned to the petitioners with an accounting of the expended portion.

Section 5. An alumni association may be established upon the petition of at least five members living within a single community or adjacent communities or living separately over a large area within a single state or adjacent states. After one year of successful operation, the Grand Board may change the charter of an alumni association to an alumni chapter contingent upon the current number of members in the alumni association and the proximity of the residences of the members. Under no circumstances shall the Grand Board make such a change where the members of the alumni association live over a large area.

Section 6. The Executive Committee shall direct the installation of all chapters and alumni associations.

Section 7. No charter shall be issued to establish an undergraduate chapter unless anchorage of that chapter is given official advance assurance by a college or university or unless the Grand Board, for special cause shown, shall waive such requirement. In special cases, the Grand Board may grant a charter to a group of students at different colleges or universities in the same or adjacent cities. Each college or university must qualify for a chapter and there must be no state law prohibiting the establishment of such a charter.

Section 8. Each undergraduate and alumni chapter shall maintain a minimum number of active or sustaining members each year as would be required for establishing a new undergraduate or alumni chapter. Failure to maintain such membership levels shall be cause for the Grand Board to place a chapter in a probationary status for a stated period and subsequently to recall the chapter charter.

(TOP) STATUTE 20. UNDERGRADUATE CHAPTERS

Section 1. Each undergraduate chapter shall have in its archives under lock and key - [i] a charter, [ii] a Constitution and Statutes of Kappa Alpha Psi, [iii] at least five Rituals, [iv] a Songbook of Kappa Alpha Psi, [v] a Story of Kappa Alpha Psi, [vi] one copy of its Bylaws, and [vii] a bible and other property required by the Ritual.

Section 2. Each undergraduate chapter shall have an alumni advisor in good standing with the Fraternity. This does not preclude the appointment of a faculty advisor by the institution where the chapter is located.

Section 3. The duties of an alumni advisor shall include - [i] attending undergraduate chapter meetings at least once each month, [ii] examining accounts payable and receivables monthly, [iii] supervising activities relating to initiation, [iv] making recommendations concerning financially delinquent members, and [v] performing such other duties required of him by the college or the Fraternity. Alumni advisors shall not usurp the responsibilities and authorities of undergraduate chapters for managing their affairs, consistent with college regulations and the Constitution, Statutes and Fraternity Regulations.

Section 4. Each undergraduate chapter advisor appointed by the Fraternity shall receive supervision from and report directly to the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction. Upon the recommendation of the Province Polemarch, he shall be reimbursed from the operating fund of the Fraternity for necessary expenses incurred in relation to his duties, subject to limitations prescribed by the Executive Committee.

Section 5. Each undergraduate chapter shall formulate, inform its members of, and maintain minimum standards of academic achievement, propriety, and decorum befitting members. Such standards shall not be less than those required by the Fraternity or the college or university at which the chapter is located. The enforcer of this section shall be the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction.

Section 6. Disciplinary action taken by a college or university against an undergraduate chapter or a member of an undergraduate chapter shall cause that chapter or member to be placed on probation by the Executive Committee. Such probation shall not be lifted until official assurance is received that the disciplinary action of the school has been removed or upon exonerating evidence given at a hearing called for by an authorized committee of the Fraternity.

Section 7. Any member who is an accessory to the circumstances resulting in a disciplinary action against an undergraduate chapter by the Fraternity or a college or university, shall be subject to a fine and suspension by the Fraternity. It shall impose the fine and suspension after a showing of reasonable cause following an investigation by an authorized committee of the Fraternity.

Section 8. Undergraduate chapters or undergraduate chapter members whose records of scholarship result in disciplinary action by the college or university, or whose records of scholarship would result in such action were the chapters recognized by the colleges or universities, shall be deprived voting rights and the right to participate in social affairs pending receipt of an official statement by the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction that such undergraduate chapters or undergraduate members are in again in satisfactory status.

Section 9. Undergraduate chapters shall forward the scholarship ranking of Greek letter organizations on campuses where such rankings are made to - [i] the Executive Committee, [ii] the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction, and [iii] the Polemarch of the alumni chapter in the immediate area - each time rankings are issued.

Section 10. No chapter or alumni association and no member shall sell invitations or otherwise solicit or accept money from non members of the Fraternity as a means for the attendance by such non members at complimentary invitational Fraternity sponsored affairs or as a means of personal financial gains.

(TOP) STATUTE 21. ELECTION OF CHAPTER OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers of each undergraduate chapter shall be elected by October 1 of each year and shall assume the duties of their office immediately

Section 2. Alumni chapter and alumni association officers shall be elected at the regular meeting in May. They shall be formally inducted into office as the last act of business at the June regular meeting.

Section 3. Election of chapter and alumni association officers shall be by secret ballot and a majority vote shall be necessary for a choice.

Section 4. No member of a chapter or alumni association shall be eligible for office who has been expelled, suspended or placed on probation by the Fraternity or his college. In the case of undergraduate chapters, no member shall be eligible for office whose grade point average is below the equivalent of a 2.3/4.0. No member shall be eligible for office who is financially delinquent with the Fraternity at any administrative level.

Section 5. Each chapter and alumni association shall submit a Chapter Officers Report to the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction and the Executive Director within 30 days of the chapter election. Failure to file a Chapter Officers Report within 30 days of the chapter election may subject the chapter to a fine determined by the Grand Board in accordance with Statute 3, Section 7.

Section 6. All officers of each chapter and alumni association, prior to assuming their respective duties, shall kneel at the Sacred Altar of Kappa Alpha Psi and shall repeat the following oath which shall be administered by the presiding officer or a past Polemarch

- I (each shall state his name) in the presence of Almighty God and the brothers of Kappa Alpha Psi here assembled, and at the Sacred Delphic Shrine, do solemnly affirm that I will faithfully execute the office of (each inductee shall state his office) and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect and defend the Ritual, Constitution, Statutes and all other regulations of Kappa Alpha Psi.

(TOP) STATUTE 22. MEMBERSHIP INTAKE

Section 1. All membership intake activities and initiations shall be executed strictly in accordance with the Constitution, Statutes and the Ritual of Kappa Alpha Psi. Where there is or appears to be a conflict between the policies, rules and regulations of a college or university and the Fraternity, the policies, rules and regulations of the college or university shall be followed.

Section 2. All potential members shall be registered with the International Headquarters by chapters. The appropriate fee shall accompany such registration. Failure to register all potential members with the International Headquarters shall subject the chapter to a fine determined in accordance with Statute 3, Section 7.

Section 3. All hazing as prescribed in the Pronouncement on Hazing is prohibited.

Section 4. No acts shall be imposed upon potential members by any member, which are not in keeping with the Statutes. When upon investigation by the Province Polemarch or other duly delegated authority there is reasonable evidence of a violation of the rights of an individual with respect to a Statute, particularly with respect to hazing or other illegal treatment of potential members, the chapter and (or) its members shall be subject to disciplinary action.

Section 5. No undergraduate chapter shall be authorized to hold an initiation without the advance written approval of the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction. Undergraduate chapters must file transcripts of total credits and grades earned by each candidate for initiation as of the close of the immediately preceding school quarter (or semester) with the Province Polemarch. In lieu of transcripts, they may submit a letter from a school official certifying that each candidate for initiation is eligible in accordance with the college or university regulations to the Province

Polemarch. The cumulative grade point average of a candidate must be at least the equivalent of a 2.3/4.0 or in accordance with the requirements of the school, whichever is higher. The undergraduate chapter concerned shall make its request to initiate in accordance with established procedures.

Section 6. No chapter shall hold an initiation during any year that such chapter is delinquent with the Fraternity or the Province of jurisdiction in accordance with the Statutes. Such initiation shall be of no effect and the chapter guilty of such infraction shall be subject to a fine and/or suspension.

Section 7. No person shall be eligible for initiation by an undergraduate chapter who - [i] is not in regular attendance at a four year college or university, [ii] is not in a college transfer program of a junior or community college as provided in Article XXV, Section 3 at the time of his proposed initiation, or [iii] is taking fewer than 10 semester hours or its equivalent of college work. The minimum number of hours shall not apply to seniors taking fewer than 10 semester hours incident to graduation.

Section 8. No person shall be initiated by an alumni chapter who has not received the majority approval for such action from the Grand Board.

Section 9. The equivalent of an AB degree as used in the Constitution shall mean any earned degree, in contrast to an honorary degree, that normally requires four or more years of academic training at a recognized college or university.

Section 10. Persons approved for initiation by alumni chapters shall be thoroughly schooled in the history of college Greek letter organizations in general and Kappa Alpha Psi in particular, and in the important distinctions between college Greek letter organizations and social clubs and lodges.

Section 11. Alumni chapters shall file petitions for potential members with the International Headquarters. All such petitions shall follow a standard format devised by the Executive Committee.

Section 12. No person shall be initiated into Kappa Alpha Psi whose conduct deviates unfavorably from prevailing standards of morality.

Section 13. Paddling, stroking, all indecent acts or acts which endanger the life, health or well being of a potential member or interfere with his scholastic work are prohibited.

Section 14. Violation of any section of this Statute shall be punishable by a fine and/or suspension as provided in the Constitution and the Statutes.

Section 15. No person shall be initiated by an undergraduate chapter without official written authorization from his college or university declaring his eligibility and written authorization from the Province Polemarch having jurisdiction over the undergraduate chapter. The eligibility roster must be submitted to the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction in order to receive written authorization. Failure to comply could result in suspension of the chapter, a fine determined in accordance with Statute 3, section 7, or both.

(TOP) STATUTE 23. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. All chapters and alumni associations shall file membership reports for each fiscal year with the International Headquarters and the Province Polemarch of jurisdiction. Any chapter or alumni association failing to file a membership report by November 30 of each year shall be required to pay a penalty determine in accordance with Statute 3, Section 7 to the Fraternity or the Province of jurisdiction, or both for each such failure.

Section 2. No person shall be denied membership in Kappa Alpha Psi for any reason of race, creed, color or national origin.

(TOP) STATUTE 24. LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Any member in good standing with the Fraternity who - [i] has not been expelled, suspended or is currently on probation, and [ii] meets the eligibility requirements, established by a majority action of the Grand Board and adopted by a majority of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting - shall be eligible to purchase a life membership upon the payment of the appropriate fee. Any change in the eligibility requirements or the fee shall become effective as of the first day of the fiscal year following the adoption of the change. Any change in the life membership fee shall have no effect upon existing life membership contracts.

Section 2. A member who selects an installment option set forth in Statute 3, section 6 shall be known as a Subscribing Life Member until he has fulfilled the financial obligation. Nothing contained in this section shall preclude a Subscribing Life Member from prepaying the balance on his agreement at anytime.

Section 3. A Subscribing Life Member shall be issued a current financial card during each year that he is paying in accordance with the terms of said agreement.

Section 4. Life Members and Subscribing Life Members shall be absolved from the payment of Grand Chapter dues, provided they shall be required to pay all Grand Chapter assessments in excess of regular dues. They are also required to pay such dues and assessments as may be prescribed by their respective Provinces, chapters or alumni associations of affiliation. Life Members shall be equally subject with all other members to the Statutes regarding sustaining or participating membership.

(TOP) STATUTE 25. CONTINUOUS MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members identified with college chapters are in active, inactive or associate status with the Fraternity. They are active when they have complied with - [i] the provisions of Article XXV, section 1; [ii] the provisions of Article XXV, section 10; and [iii] any provisions imposed by their Provinces of jurisdiction and chapters of affiliation. They are inactive when they have not met the provisions of Article XXV, Section 10 and have not complied with the provisions of their Provinces of jurisdiction and chapters of affiliation. They are associate if eligible for membership in an alumni chapter or alumni association but no such chapter or alumni association is located within the area of the residence of the member and affiliation with an undergraduate chapter is in accordance with the Statutes.

Section 2. Members affiliated with alumni chapters or alumni associations or eligible for such affiliation are in sustaining, non-sustaining or associate status with the Fraternity. They are sustaining when they have complied with - [i] the provisions of Article XXV, Section 1; [ii] the provisions of Article XXV, Section 11; and [iii] any provisions imposed by their Provinces of jurisdiction and chapters or alumni associations of affiliation. They are non-sustaining when they have not complied with the provisions of their Provinces of jurisdiction and chapters or alumni associations of affiliation. They are associate if eligible for membership in an undergraduate chapter in accordance with the Statutes but no such chapter is located at their school of attendance or at any other school within the area close enough to make affiliation practical.

Section 3. Associate members of undergraduate chapters shall not vote or hold office in such chapters and shall pay dues and assessments required of alumni members by the Fraternity. Associate members carrying full college schedules as candidates for the MA, MS, Ph.D., MD or equivalent degree and members serving internships or as residents for which there is only token pay, shall pay the dues and assessments of members in undergraduate status of the Fraternity. Such resident service must immediately follow the completion of an internship. Chapters established at professional or graduate schools as undergraduate chapters and members of such chapters in undergraduate status shall have all the rights and privileges that accrue to such status, excluding those on the Grand Chapter or Province level which would place these members in direct competition with members holding less than a baccalaureate degree. Dues and assessments other than those required by the Fraternity shall be in accordance with undergraduate chapter bylaws.

Section 4. Associate members of alumni chapters shall not vote or hold office in such chapters and shall pay dues and assessments required of undergraduate members by the Fraternity. Any other required dues and assessments shall be in accordance with the bylaws of the local alumni chapter.

Section 5. [Adopted at 76th Grand Chapter meeting]

Section 9. There shall be no appeal from the decision of the Board of Appeals.

Section 10. The Grand Board shall prescribe the Rules of Procedure used throughout the hearing and appeal process.

(TOP) STATUTE 40. AMENDMENT OR REPEAL OF STATUTES

Section 1. The Statutes may be amended by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter, present and voting, provided a proposed amendment has been submitted in writing in accordance with the further provisions of this Statute.

Section 2. Proposed amendments may be submitted only from a Council or by the Grand Board. Any such proposed amendment shall be submitted in writing to the International Headquarters not less than 90 days before the Grand Chapter meeting at which it is to be considered. Any proposed amendment shall be accompanied with a written statement stating the rationale in support of the proposed amendment.

Section 3. To be submitted to the members of the Grand Chapter for consideration, the proposed amendment with the accompanying support information shall be referred to a standing committee on constitution and statute amendments. This committee shall consist of one undergraduate and one alumni member from each Province, and one member of the Grand Board, who shall serve as the chairman. The General Counsel shall serve as the advisor to the committee.

Section 4. The Executive Director shall circulate the proposed amendments with supporting rationale not less than 30 days prior to the next Grand Chapter meeting to all - [i] living founders, [ii] Past Grand Polemarchs, [iii] national officers, [iv] Province Polemarchs, [v] chapters, and [vi] alumni associations.

Section 5. Only those proposed amendments, approved by a majority vote of the committee shall be submitted to the members of the Grand Chapter for legislative consideration. Those proposed amendments not approved by the committee may be considered only upon a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the Grand Chapter without debate.

Section 6. Any amendment to the Statutes shall be in full force and effect on and after the date of its passage, unless otherwise provided.
